```
          G                          D
Chorus    If you ever feel lonesome, And your down in San Antone
          Am          D                      C                      F
          Beg steal or borrow two nickles or a dime and call me on the phone
          G                                  D
          And I'll meet you at  Alamo mission where we can say our prayers
          Am                     D
          The Holy Ghost and the Virgin mother will heal us
          Em    D      C
          As we kneel there

              G          D      G   D
Chorus    In the moonlight in the midnight
              G          D              A
          In the moonlight midnight moonlight
              G          D      G   D
          In the moonlight in the midnight
              G          D              A
          In the moonlight midnight moonlight

          Chorus

          G                      D
V2        If you ever feel sorrow for things you have done
          Am               D
          With no hope for tomorrow
          C                    F
          In the setting of the sun
          G                          D
          And the ocean is howling with things that might have been
          Am                     D
          That last good morning sunrise
                   Em       D           C
          Will be the brightest you've ever seen

          Chorus
